

Selfies anonymous – VOCABULARY BOOSTER

1. Match the expressions to the definitions:

brag about sth    compare    competitive    fake    judge sb    peers    post / share    snippet    update

snippet	a small part, piece or thing competitive	about a person who wants to win and be better than others
brag about sth	boast about something, show off
judge sb	create an opinion about somebody compare	look for similarities and differences between things
update	give the most recent information
fake	not real, but make to look or seem real peers	people who are the same age or have the same social position or the same abilities
post / share	publish something on a website or using social media

2. Complete the sentences with the words from exercise 1:

- I hate it when people brag about achievements they shouldn't have got credit for.
- Before I buy something, I always compare prices in various shops before I make up my mind.
- I've always been very competitive and ambitious.
- I'm not ashamed to say that I sometimes buy fake perfume because it's much cheaper.
- Even though I know it's wrong, I can't help but judge people basing on their appearance.
- It's inevitable not to compare yourself to your peers.
- I regularly post pictures about my life on social media.
- I take great care not to evaluate anything basing only on snippets of information.
- I often call my friends to update them on what's going on in my life.

3. Are the sentences true for you?

What do people usually brag about on social media?

What is peer pressure?

Why shouldn't we compare ourselves to others?

Do you agree that we live in a culture of oversharing?

Give one advantage and one disadvantage of being competitive.

What are the dangers of posting too much information on social media?

Would you be able to tell a fake watch from a genuine one?

Do you fall for the edited and refined version people show on social media by sharing snippets of their life?

Don't judge the book by its cover – do you agree with this statement?

How often do you update your Facebook status?

