

For and against

Working flexible hours is better than fixed working hours.

Working part-time is good only for students.

Working from home has only advantages.

Self-employment is the best kind of employment.

Replying to a lot of e-mails is the worst part of every job.

It's necessary to get on well with your colleagues.

Working in a team is usually easy.

Working with computer is easier than working with people.

When you are sick, you shouldn't come to work.

Meetings are mostly a waste of time.

Business trips are a great added value to the job.

Team-building activities are really effective.

