

The second conditional in Business English class

How would your life be different if you worked ten hours a day for four days a week?
(instead of eight hours for five days)

How would your life be different if you worked from home?

How would your life be different if you earned twice as much as you're earning now?

How would your life be different if you got fired tomorrow?

How would your life be different if you worked shifts?

How would your life be different if you were a manager?

How would your life be different if you couldn't drink coffee at work?

How would your life be different if your boss were a dog?

If you were asked to relocate to another city for work, would you accept the offer?

Would you lie on your CV to get a job?

Would you be happier if you worked only alone?

Would you be willing to train an intern?

Would you accept a promotion if it meant working overtime?

Would you consider doing a course if it guaranteed you a promotion?

If you had a lot of money and didn't have to work, would you consider voluntary work?

If you didn't have to sleep at night, would you consider doing another job?

